Good afternoon Mr. Meyer,

I have not received any information about the Judge's decision with regards to whether or not there will be a hearing. Judge Kengis is currently in the process of reviewing the motion consistent with the COA order. You can take whatever action you feel is necessary with regards to your civil case as I cannot provide any assistance with those matters.

Best Regards,

Good Morning Preston,

We spoke early last week about the COA Order issued on June 22 (COA Docket 353028, LC No. 12-017608-FC). When we spoke, you were going to check with Judge Kengis whether he wanted to have a hearing or not. I was curious if any decision has been made yet? I will either need to schedule a "recusal" hearing for the civil suit related to the tether, or dismiss the suit as the issue has been resolved.

Thanks for your time,
Jon Meyer
